Current program procedures request that all applicants be processed at one of the food distribution locations. We cannot process any applications without first having a face-to-face interview with you. Please see the back of this letter to find a location nearest to you. Clients are seen on a first come first serve basis.

Please bring all requested information with you on the day you apply. A caseworker will interview you at that time and determine your eligibility. The following documents are needed to determine your eligibility:

CDIB (Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood) Card, Tribal Membership Card or Proof of Tribal Lineage—Your file must contain proof of Tribal lineage for at least one household member.

Social Security Cards – We request you bring Social Security Cards for all household members.

Address Verification – Please bring current proof of your residency with your name and address on it, preferably a utility bill dated within the last 30 days.

Income Verification –All income coming into the household must be submitted with your application. Check Stubs: If you are paid weekly, bring your last four pay stubs. If you are paid bi-monthly or bi-weekly, bring your last two pay stubs and if you are paid monthly bring your last pay stub. Fixed Income: Please bring verification from the Social Security Office or Department of Human Services verifying amount of Social Security, SSI, TANF, SSP etc.

Unemployment Participants: Any household member 18 years or older that can work and is currently unemployed will need to register with the unemployment office or provide collateral statements from two non-relatives certifying the person in question is unemployed.

Students: Bring copies of your tuition, books and fees as well as verification of any grants or loans received.

Self-Employment: If you are self-employed please bring your most recent tax forms.

DHS Verification – If you have recently applied for or received SNAP (Food Stamps benefits), please bring a termination letter from the Department of Human Services to verify you are no longer receiving them.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf, from any USDA office, by calling (833) 620-1071, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to:
